

Le verbe devoir

must / have to / need to

Introduction

Je dois renouveler mon passeport.

I have to renew my passport

Vous devez apporter l'ancien passeport et des photos à la mairie. Attention : les photos doivent être conformes !

You must bring the old passport and photos to the town hall. Please note: the photos must conform!

Utilisation

« devoir » = an obligation (must / have to / need to)

- Paul doit finir le compte-rendu de la réunion avant vendredi.
- Paul has to finish writing the minutes of the meeting by Friday.
- Les hôtesse doivent vérifier le passeport des passagers.
- The flight attendants must check the passengers' passports.

« devoir » = a probability / deduction (must)

- Paul doit être dans son bureau = il est certainement dans son bureau.
- Paul must be in his office. = He is probably in his office.

Conjugation

devoir	Have to / must / need to
Je dois	I have to / must / need to
Tu dois	You have to / must / need to
Il doit	He/ It has to / must / need to
Elle doit	She/It has to / must / need to
Nous devons	We have to / must / need to
Vous devez	You have to / must / need to
Ils doivent	They have to / must / need to (plural masculine)
Elles doivent	They have to / must / need to (plural feminine)

Remarque

The verb after the verb « devoir » is always in the infinitive form.

- Nous devons organiser une réunion rapidement.
- We must organise a meeting quickly.
- Tu dois faire une présentation demain ?
- You have to do a presentation tomorrow?

From: <https://tools.e-exercices.com/> - Ressources pour les apprenants

Permanent link: https://tools.e-exercices.com/doku.php?id=en:grammaire:verbes:present:verbes_irreguliers_tres_frequents:devoir

Last update: 2023/02/14 14:31

