Colour, size and nationality

Introduction

Their house is red.

Definition

Adjectives describe nouns.

Construction

1. Before a noun: It's a blue car.

2. After 'to be': The car is/isn't blue.

There isn't a plural form:

The cars are reds. X
The cars are red. Y

Uses

Adjectives give information about people and things. For example: colour, size and nationality.

It's green.
It's a big city.
They're French.
The river is 100km long.

Mont Blanc is 4,810m high. She's 1.75m tall.

Examples

There are two purple sofas and a pink chair.

Is your office big or small?

My boss is American and his clients are Japanese.

James is tall.

Nationality

King Charles is British.

We use adjectives for nationality before a noun or after 'to be'. They always begin with a capital letter.

I work with a Spanish man. We have a Swedish manager.

He's French. They're German. 2025/12/19 23:33 3/4 Colour, size and nationality

We use adjectives ending in 'an' as nouns:

For the nouns of nationalities ending with -ese, -ish, or -ch, we can use 'the' to talk about the whole population.

The English often take their holidays in France.

For nationalities ending with -n, generally no article is necessary.

Americans are friendly.
