Word order

The conjunctions and, but, or, because and so are usually placed in the middle of a sentence but can also be used to begin a sentence, especially in informal writing:

It's very quiet in the office at the moment because so many people are on holiday. Because so many people are on holiday, it's very quiet in the office at the moment.

With and, but, or and so, there is a sense of a pause before emphasising something:

We need to find new premises. And we need to employ two new managers! It's a serious problem. But, don't worry - I think I have a solution. We could invite everyone to the meeting. Or maybe we should limit it to team leaders.

It's getting nearer to the deadline. So, let's work hard to get it finished.
