'Opposite' or 'in front of'?

These are often confused. Sometimes, we can distinguish between them simply by considering the following examples:

- There was a man in front of me on the bus. [I could see the back of his head.]
- There was a man opposite me at the meeting. [I could see his face.]

However, we use 'in front of' when talking about objects with 'screens':

- She spends too much time in front of the mirror/tv/computer.

This is because we usually use 'in front of' when there is little or no space between things and 'opposite' when there is a greater distance:

There's one street lamp in front of my house and another one opposite my house.

'In' and 'out'

As adverbs, these can be used alone to mean 'here' or 'not here':

- "Can I speak to Jack, please?"
- "Sorry, he's not in today. Can I take a message?" [not at work] * I'm the only person at home today. Everyone else is out. [not at home]
- We're going out later, maybe to the cinema; we're not sure yet.
- I didn't hear you come in last night; what time was it?
