The present simple

Introduction

I love my dog!!

Definition

The present simple is one of the two present tenses. The other one is the present continuous.

Construction

Affirmative

Subject + verb/verb with s or es - I like cheese.

We add s or es to the end of regular verbs with he, she or it.

Anne loves chocolate. Thierry misses his wife. The train arrives at 10 o'clock.

It is important to pronounce the s or es.

Negative

Subject + do + not + bare infinitive - I don't like cheese.

Interrogative

Do + subject + bare infinitive - Do you like cheese?

Negative

Interrogative

I don't work	Do I work?
You don't work	Do you work?
He doesn't work	Does he work?
She doesn't work	Does she work?
It doesn't work	Does it work?
We don't work	Do we work?
They don't work	Do they work?

Does sounds like dAz. Doesn't sounds like dAzant.
