Remarques

Les pronoms personnels de sujet sont facultatifs en espagnol. On ne les emploie que pour insister ou emphatiser, pour éviter une ambiguïté ou pour marquer une opposition.

En Amérique latine et dans certaines régions d'Espagne, on n'emploie pas le pronom sujet
 "vosotros", mais "
 "ustedes" pour parler de la 2^a personne du pluriel.

Dans certains pays Latino-Américains (Argentine, Bolivie, Chili, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Paraguay, Uruguay...) la deuxième personne du singulier "

Usted/es s'emploie dans des situations formelles dans lesquelles nous ne connaissons pas suffisamment les personnes pour les tutoyer.

Usted c'est la personne de courtoisie du singulier mais se conjugue toujours comme la troisième personne du singulier.

Ustedes c'est la personne de courtoisie du pluriel mais se conjugue toujours comme la troisième personne du pluriel.
